

The Sherryl Kintu Scholarship was set up as a tribute to, and in recognition of, the passions and interests of Sherryl Kintu. A dedicated employee of Global University Systems for nine years, Sherryl rose from Executive Assistant to a Director-level position. She sadly passed away in April 2021. Sherryl was known as a trustworthy friend to individuals and the company, with a deep passion and drive for everything she did. This scholarship is awarded to a female applicant that is a citizen of an African country in her honour.

Eligibility

To be considered for the Sherryl Kintu Scholarship Fund, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be an international female applicant that is a citizen of an African country who is seeking admission to one of the following programs: Master of Arts in Digital Media and Global Communications, Master of Data Analytics, or Master of Management
- Be in clear need of funding
- Be admissible for direct entry to your program of choice and apply for the Sherryl Kintu Scholarship Fund by 11:59 p.m. EST on Jan. 31, 2025, to start your program in the 2025 Summer or Fall term

- I understand and acknowledge that it is my responsibility to be aware of, and comply with, all UNF terms and conditions for awards.
- I understand that I cannot appeal the decision of the UNF Scholarship Committee and/or the Sherryl Kintu Fund Board, that all decisions are final and that only the recipient of this award will be contacted.

Privacy and data protection

By submitting this application form for an award, scholarship or other financial aid (the “Award” or “Awards”), you confirm that you are requesting consideration for an Award and are providing the above information about you (your “personal data”) for these purposes. UNF requires this information for legitimate business purposes, and, at your request, in order to make decisions about your eligibility for the Awards. Your personal data will be collected, used and disclosed only for these purposes and, in the event, you are selected to receive an Award, to administer payment and for other purposes related to your participation in your UNF program of study and to evaluate UNF’s programs and activities. The failure to provide complete or accurate information may result in UNF’s inability to process your application. Your personal data may be shared with federal and provincial regulatory, or government bodies as required or permitted by law. UNF makes decisions concerning Awards in cooperation with its parent company, Global University Systems (GUS), which is based in the United Kingdom and the Netherlands. GUS may access and use your personal data outside of Canada for these purposes. Further information about the retention of your data, how it is collected, used and disclosed by UNF, and your rights to seek access to the correction or destruction of your personal data are available in UNF’s Privacy Policy. Our Privacy Policy also sets out the circumstances in which we may share information about you with our service providers based within and outside of Canada. Questions or complaints about this notice or the collection, use, disclosure or protection of your personal data should be directed to our Privacy and Data Protection Officer at 1-877-431-6887.

In Canada, UNF complies with the Personal Information Protection Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. For the purposes of this legislation, by submitting this application you consent to the collection, use and disclosure of your personal data as described above and in accordance with our Privacy Policy.

Terms and conditions

- Students must provide the required supporting documentation. Incomplete award applications will not be considered.
- Students need only apply once to be considered for this award for the duration of their studies with UNF.
- Awards are not transferable to another student.
- The scholarship recipient is responsible for paying all fees not covered by the scholarship before the start of each term. Additional fees may include, but are not limited to, housing and accommodations, ancillary fees, library fees, health insurance, and health and wellness fees.
- This scholarship is applicable only for on-campus, full-time studies and the scholarship recipient must have an approved and valid study permit.
- Financial awards may be deferred for a maximum of one (1) term from the original admission start term. Requests for a deferral must be made in writing to the Office of the Registrar.
- Decisions of the UNF Scholarship Committee and the Sherryl Kintu Fund Board (SKFB) are final.
- Students are required to remain in good academic standing, according to their programs specific grading scheme, term over term to continue receiving funding.
 - Should a student fall below the margin, but remain active in their program the following term and recover their term GPA to once again be declared as in good academic standing, they are eligible to once again receive the funding (not for the previously missed term; only moving forward for future terms)
- Recipients must maintain the required registration status throughout the term of the award to remain eligible. If the recipient withdraws, the award will be refunded to UNF.
- This scholarship is not combinable with other entrance awards.
- Eligible award applicants must be a direct admission recipient. Those requiring a preparatory program prior to their studies commencing are not eligible.

By submitting this application form, you agree to all the terms and conditions related to scholarships, awards, grants, tuition concessions, and bursaries as set out by UNF. By checking the box below, I agree to all of the above statements and give my consent to the above terms.
